All Sanctions listed above are the minimum sanctions imposed. Should a student have a disciplinary history, regardless if past violations are unrelated to current violations, sanctions imposed will be more severe. The standard sanctions rarely are reduced. However, the presence of substantial mitigating or other appropriate circumstances may result in the reduction of a standard sanction at the discretion of the assistant dean of students, the student disciplinary committee, or the dean of students.

While on University Probation, students are prohibited from applying to or attending International Programs. Students placed on University Probation will automatically receive a letter indicating that further violations will result in loss of financial aid.
