

CHRISTIANITY AND THE DETECTIVE STORY

A Conference at Pace University in New York

March 5-7, 2010

Featured Speaker: RALPH McINERNEY, author of the Father Dowling mysteries

CALL FOR PAPERS: Proposals should be sent to Walter Raubicheck, Chair/English, at wraubicheck@pace.edu by OCTOBER 1, 2009

Possible Authors: Chesterton, Sayers, Christie, Peters, Greene, P.D. James, McInerney, Eco, Greeley

Any topic related to the intersection of mystery and theology will be considered.

We will also consider a panel featuring original mystery fiction that embraces the theme of the conference.

Conference Fee: $100 (includes all meals)

All presenters must be members of the Conference on Christianity and Literature

Conference Chairperson: Michael Rosenfeld, Director of Center for Academic Excellence, Pace University (NY)

Chair for Local Arrangements: Anna Morlan, Adjunct Assistant Professor, Pace University (NY)

Presented by the Northeast Region of the Conference on Christianity and Literature and Pace University

