ABC REBOOT BATTLE OF THE NETWORK STARS TO FILM AT PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY

Pepperdine University has announced that a revival of the hit ABC television series Battle of the Network Stars will be filmed on the Malibu campus from late May through June 10.

Host network ABC decided to return to the show's original location at Pepperdine where filming took place during the show's original run from 1976 to 1985. Produced by Glassman Media and IMG, the nostalgic 10-episode throwback show will once again assemble teams consisting of current and classic celebrities who will compete against one another in an array of physical challenges.

"Battle of the Network Stars was a summertime fixture on our Malibu campus for many years and one that many alumni and members of our campus community remember fondly," says Nate Ethell, director of communications and brand development. "We're delighted that ABC is bringing the games home and look forward to Pepperdine helping set the stage for the newest edition of friendly celeb-on-celeb combat." Like the original series, numerous celebrities from a variety of television networks will participate in friendly competition to raise money for charity. The show will not include an invited audience, but ABC will encourage the Pepperdine campus community to view filming from the sidelines of these competitive summer games and events. Filming will take place at the pool, track, and Alumni Park.

Battle of the Network Stars is scheduled to premiere on June 29, 2017. For facility closures please visit pepperdine.edu/crest/facilities.

PEPPERDINE UNIVERSITY ANNOUNCES PAUL L. CARON AS DUANE AND KELLY ROBERTS DEAN OF THE SCHOOL OF LAW

Paul L. Caron has been named the Duane and Kelly Roberts Dean of the Pepperdine School of Law. Caron, currently associate dean for research and faculty development and professor of law, will formally begin his responsibilities as dean on June 1, 2017. Caron came to the School of Law in 2010 as the D & L Straus Distinguished Visiting Professor of Law. He joined the School of Law tenured faculty in 2013 as professor of law and assumed the role of associate dean for research and faculty development in 2015. Previously Caron served as the associate dean of faculty and the Charles Hartsock Professor of Law at the University of Cincinnati College of Law.

"I am honored to be chosen as the next dean of this great law school at this important point in its history, following in the footsteps of Deanell Tacha, Ken Starr, Richard Lynn, and Ron Phillips," shares Caron. "I look forward to building on their work to advance Pepperdine's unique position in legal education by combining academic and research excellence with a deep-rooted commitment to our Christian mission that welcomes people of all faiths and backgrounds." For more information about Paul Caron please visit newsroom.pepperdine.edu.

PROCESS AND REALITY CONTEMPORARY ART FROM THE PERMANENT COLLECTION CURRENTLY - AUGUST 6, 2017 FREDERICK R. WEISMAN MUSEUM OF ART

Over the past decades contemporary artists have explored these two key themes. Process reflects artists' interest in their own practice and methods. Reality remains a touchstone, a way of retaining contact with and commenting upon our everyday world. Including work by seminal artists such as Jean-Michel Basquiat, Jonathan Borofsky, Tim Hawkinson, Ed Keinholtz, Mike Kelley, and Ed Moses, this exhibition offers a fascinating overview of vital trends in the art of our time.

It is free and open to the public Tuesday - Sunday, 11 AM to 5 PM, and one hour prior to most theatre performances through intermission. Please call 310.506.4851 or visit arts.pepperdine.edu for more information.
