KEEPING FRIENDS AND NEIGHBORS OF PEPPERDINE INFORMED ABOUT CURRENT EVENTS AND PROGRAMS

JOIN US FOR THE PARKENING INTERNATIONAL GUITAR COMPETITION

Fifteen of the world's most talented young guitarists will gather at The Lisa Smith Wengler Center for the Arts to compete in the prestigious Parkening International Guitar Competition, Tuesday, May 26 to Saturday, May 30.

Representing 11 countries, the male and female competitors will vie for the largest prize purse among guitar competitions. The contest's namesake and artistic director, renowned guitar virtuoso Christopher Parkening, is distinguished professor of music at Pepperdine's Seaver College. The competition honors his lifetime commitment to fostering musical excellence in young artists as demonstrated by his mentor, Spanish musician Andres Segovia, considered one of the greatest guitarists of all time.

The competitors range in age from 18 to 30 years old and come from Argentina, Australia, Bosnia and Herzegovina, China, Italy, Romania, Russia, South Korea, Turkey, Ukraine, and the United States.

The competition, which debuted in 2006, offers cash awards that total in excess of $65,000. After three days of intense public performances, the winner of the Parkening International Guitar Competition receives a gold medal, the Jack Marshall Prize of $30,000, and the most prestigious title in classical guitar.

In addition to the Parkening International Guitar Competition, Pepperdine will present the Parkening Young Guitarist Competition on Tuesday and Wednesday, May 26 and 27. The 10 competitors, ages 17 and younger, are also exceptionally talented and represent several countries.

For tickets and more information please visit arts.pepperdine.edu/parkening or call 310.506.4522.

CREST & WAVES
