DERYCK J. VAN RENSBURG NAMED DEAN OF GRAZIADIO SCHOOL OF BUSINESS AND MANAGEMENT

On April 7 it was announced that Dr. Deryck J. van Rensburg has been named dean of the Pepperdine University Graziadio School of Business and Management. Van Rensburg, former president of global ventures at The Coca-Cola Company, will assume his responsibilities on November 1, 2016. Van Rensburg brings to Pepperdine 32 years of international business experience in leadership roles with The Coca-Cola Company, and formerly with Unilever PLC, where he held roles in the United States, Germany, the United Kingdom, Austria, Greece, Romania, Belgium, and South Africa. "After a careful search and with thoughtful faculty engagement, I believe we have found just the right leader for this next chapter in the history of the Graziadio School of Business and Management," says Pepperdine University president Andrew K. Benton. "In Dr. van Rensburg, we have found an experienced, global strategic leader for our future. We welcome Deryck and his family to the Pepperdine community with great anticipation." Van Rensburg holds a doctorate from the University of Manchester, an MBA with distinction from the University of Bath in England, and undergraduate degrees from University of South Africa/Universiteit van Suid-Afrika and Rhodes University. Dr. van Rensburg, his wife Rozanne, and their family will be relocating to the Los Angeles area in the fall.
