PEPPERDINE POLO CLASSIC

Dust off your divot-stomping shoes, because the Center for the Arts Guild has set a date for the second annual Pepperdine Polo Classic! Join us Saturday, September 20, as we gather with friends at the Santa Barbara Polo & Racquet Club for a festive afternoon lawn party and polo match.

All proceeds from the Pepperdine Polo Classic will benefit arts education programs and activities at the Lisa Smith Wengler Center for the Arts. Thanks to annual Arts Guild memberships and special events, we are able to bring thousands of Los Angeles and Ventura County schoolchildren to the Malibu campus each year for free performances and museum tours.

Funds raised by the Arts Guild also provide critical programming support to ensure a robust calendar of arts events each season bringing a wide variety of top-flight dance, music, and theatre from around the world to each of our campus venues. For more information please visit arts.pepperdine.edu/performances/polo-classic.htm or call 310.506.4115.

MICKY MOORE RECEPTION AT THE PAYSON LIBRARY

Crest Associates are invited to join us for a reception celebrating a treasured member of the Pepperdine and Malibu communities Micky Moore on September 27, 3:30-5 PM at the Payson Library.

Micky Moore was a child star turned second-unit director, a transition in which he was guided by the great director Cecil B. DeMille. He had a knack for action sequences, working on some of the most famous movies of the 20th century—Butch Cassidy and the Sundance Kid, Patton, Raiders of the Lost Ark, and more.

Micky Moore's daughters, Sandy Kastendiek-Drake (mother of a Seaver/GSEP alumnus) and Crest Associate Tricia Newman, generously donated a diverse array of archival materials documenting Moore's career, including photographs, scripts, storyboards, correspondence, and more. To RSVP contact jeanettewoodburn@pepperdine.edu or call 310.506.6785.
