Life in Israel

“MY EYES AND THOUGHTS HAVE BEEN OPENED TO MANY SIDES OF LIFE, MANY VIEWPOINTS, AND IDEAS. I HAVE EMERGED STRONGER—BETTER EQUIPPED TO CAPTIVATE AND TO UNDERSTAND. I RECEIVED A FIRSTHAND EDUCATION THAT DOES NOT COMPARE WITH ANY CLASSROOM. WE ALL COME FROM MANY DIFFERENT PLACES, BUT REALLY, THERE IS MORE TO US THAT IS THE SAME THAN THAT IS DIFFERENT. WE HAVE MANY OF THE SAME NEEDS, THE SAME GOALS OF HAPPINESS, PEACE, AND FULFILLMENT.”

– JANET VALENCIA (MPP ’11), School of Public Policy

“I HAVE SEEN MORE THAN I EVER COULD HAVE HOPED TO HAVE SEEN, FROM CLIMBING INTO AN ARMY TANK IN THE HILLS OF THE Golan Heights, TO SWIMMING IN THE DEAD SEA AND HIKING MASADA, TO EATING LUNCH IN A DUGOUT HOME IN THE CARmel Mountains, TO WALKING THROUGH CAVERNS TUNNELS IN ARAQ, TO SIPPING COFFEE IN THE GERMAN Colony IN Haifa, TO VISITING A MOSQUE ALONG THE BORDER OF Gaza, TO SOAKING UP THE SUN ON THE BEACHES OF Tel Aviv, AND BARGAINING IN THE MARKETS OF Jerusalem. I’VE MET ALL SORTS OF PEOPLE, PICKED UP A ROUGH GRASP OF BASIC Hebrew, GAINED NEW PERSPECTIVES, AND EATEN SOME OF THE FRESHEST, MOST DELECTABLE FOOD.”

– DAVID LONGSTAFF (SEAVER ’14), Seaver College

“I WAS AMASTRUCK BY THE CROSS SECTION OF HUMANITY THAT EXISTED WITHIN SUCH A SMALL AREA. TOURISTS, ULTRA-ORTHODOX Jews, Muslims, all there to experience these sacred places. It was this sentiment that made the experience awe inspiring, especially upon later reflection at the end of the day.”

– TREVOR NEWMAN (JD ’12), School of Law

“WITH ANY INTERNSHIP YOU FEAR THAT YOU WILL WALK AWAY BEING MORE QUALIFIED FOR A BARISTA POSITION THAN YOUR DREAM JOB. ANY NOTION OF THAT FEAR WAS GONE THE SECOND I WALKED IN MY FIRST DAY. I FEEL EXTREMELY GRATEFUL THAT I WAS ABLE TO NOT ONLY BE PLACED WITH AN ORGANIZATION THAT PEAKS MY INTEREST, BUT ALSO AN ORGANIZATION THAT ALLOWS ME TO LEARN ABOUT THE EVENTS OF THE WORLD THROUGH THE LENS OF HUMAN RIGHTS.”

– EMILY BARTHOLOMEW (SPP ’14), School of Public Policy

“MY STAY HERE HAS BEEN A TREMENDOUS EXPERIENCE. WORKING AT THE CAMPUSE BIALIK ROGOZIN HAS REVITALIZED MY DESIRE FOR TEACHING CHILDREN.”

– GINA MAZZONE (GSEP ’12), Graduate School of Education and Psychology

“WHILE VISITING SOME OF THE HOLiest SITES IN THE WORLD, OUR GROUP GOT TO KNOW EACH OTHER AND LASTING FRIENDSHIPS WERE FORMED.”

– MICHAEL PAYNE (SPP ’14), School of Public Policy

EXAMPLES OF STUDENT PLACEMENTS:

BUSINESS

INTERNATIONAL INSTITUTE FOR COUNTER-TERRORISM (ICT)

As the leading academic institute for counter-terrorism in the world, the ICT facilitates international cooperation in the global struggle against terrorism. Interns serve as research assistants and coordinate major events, lectures, and conferences sponsored by the Institute.

EDUCATION/SOCIAL SERVICES

BEIT ISSIE SHAPIRO

As the country’s largest children’s disability clinic, Bickie Shapiro is regarded as one of the most highly advanced centers in the world. Interns work in advocacy, treatment, and support for children with disabilities.

THICHON RESHIT

A religious boys’ school in Tel Aviv, Thichon Reshit caters to students from a variety of backgrounds, and focuses on creating a community of students and teachers. Interns administer student camps, collaborative events, and local meetings.

NONPROFIT

THE ISRAEL MUSEUM IN JERUSALEM

As the largest cultural institution in the State of Israel, the museum is ranked among the world’s leading art and archaeology museums. Interns work with museum exhibits and digitizing archive collections.

YAD VASHEM HOLOCAUST HISTORY MUSEUM

As the Jewish people’s living memorial to the Holocaust, Yad Vashem safeguards the memory of the past and imparts its meaning for future generations. Established in 1953, as the world center for documentation, research, education and commemoration of the Holocaust, Yad Vashem is today a dynamic and vital place of intergenerational and international encounter. Interns are involved in research and organizing international meetings that focus on genocide.

POLICY AND POLITICS

NGO MONITOR

Founded to promote accountability, NGO Monitor advances a vigorous discussion on the reports and activities of NGOs claiming to advance human rights and humanitarian agendas. Interns are involved in expansion initiatives, researching, and reporting on the funding of non-governmental organizations, focusing on human rights violations.

LAW

GILEAD SHER LAW OFFICES

One of the most prestigious law firms in Israel, Gilead Sher Law handles cases on a wide range of subject matters, including international law to labor law, real estate, corporate law, and commercial law. Interns are given the opportunity to compile comparative law analyses for high-profile cases.

GORNITZKY AND COMPANY

Founded in 1938, Gornitzky & Co. has been involved in many of the largest and most complex transactions in the Israeli market and has played a key role in the development of Israel’s economy and legal practice. The firm is consistently rated as one of Israel’s leading law firms and is well-known for its extensive experience in all areas of commercial law.

LEVY, MEIDAN & CO. ATTORNEYS AT LAW

The firm is one of Israel’s foremost commercial law firms, dedicated to providing an extensive range of diverse legal services to major Israeli international companies, as well as local government ministries and public bodies.

THE PERES CENTER FOR PEACE

The center promotes peace by engaging citizens in projects of socioeconomic development, community activities, and educational programs. Interns regularly work on projects aimed at facilitating relations between Palestinians and Israelis.

THE BIALEK-ROGOZIN SCHOOL

The Bialek-Rogozin School is a showcase of diversity, welcoming children from various socioeconomic backgrounds and ethnic homes, integrating students from 48 countries into Israeli culture. Interns gain valuable experience from diverse classrooms, expanding expertise by working with students of various cultural backgrounds.
