

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Tuesday 11:30 AM-3 PM Lunch available at Amphitheatre Grill

If you've arrived early and haven't had lunch yet, grab a meal at the Grill. Items can be purchased individually or with pre-registered meal ticket. Meal ticket includes any sandwich/burger/fish taco, 1 side, 1 drink, and 1 dessert. Does not include plated entrees.

Tuesday 12-9 PM Registration and On-Campus Housing Opens

As you enter campus, follow signs to Housing Check-In. Temporary parking is available in the lot while you collect your registration materials. You may also park along the streets. Pepperdine shuttles offer complimentary service around the campus.

Tuesday 1:30-2:30 PM Pepperdine Faculty/Staff Session

Hosted by the Office of Human Resources

Tuesday 2:30-4 PM Healing Wounded Healers

Ministers and their spouses largely give to others. This session provides an opportunity for ministers and their spouses to receive - receive a blessing, receive a hearing, receive encouragement. Come and be blessed by those who understand your journey, your loneliness, and your need to be prayed over. Limited seating. Registration required.

Hosts: Grady King, Jon Mullican

Tuesday 4:30-6 PM Welcome Reception

Enjoy heavy hors d'oeuvres and music while connecting with friends and browsing the exhibitor tables. Admittance included with conference registration.

Tuesday 4:30-6:15 PM Dinner available at Amphitheatre Grill

If you've just arrived and aren't ready to head down to the Fieldhouse for the Welcome Reception, grab a meal at the Grill. Items can be purchased individually or with pre-registered meal ticket. Meal ticket includes any sandwich or salad option, one side (chips or fruit cup), one drink, and one dessert. Does not include plated entrees.

Wednesday 8:30 AM-4:15 PM Prepare/Enrich Certification Workshop (Training for Premarital Counseling)

Prepare/Enrich is one of the most widely used programs for premarital counseling. It is a customized couple assessment that identifies a couple's strength and growth areas. A trained facilitator helps the couple discuss and understand their results as they are taught proven relationship skills. This six-hour training includes certification and all the materials to get started using Prepare/Enrich in your community, as well as one complimentary online scoring credit. A spouse may share materials and attend the workshop at no additional charge. Cost is $195 per person. Register at biblelectures\_prepareenrich.eventbrite.com.

Teacher: Ed Gray

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Breathe: Creating Contemplative Moments

In fear, we hold our breath and have to be told to breathe slowly to help us calm down. When we're about to do something hard, we take a deep breath to find our courage. Breathing looks almost like a kind of praying. You need to pray like you need to breathe and you need to breathe like you need to pray. In this session, learn to attend to God in stillness with centering prayers. Learn how to use breath prayers to create contemplative moments. Discover how to be watchful of your afflictive thoughts to become a witness to them rather than a victim to your anxieties.

Teacher: Jovan Barrington

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Female Leadership and the Growth of the Churches of Christ in the 1920s and 1930s

Though women rarely occupied pulpits or other titled positions of power, they nonetheless shaped the tremendous growth of the churches in between the two world wars through their role as missionaries, journalists, Sunday School teachers, and many other others. This session will contrast how women led in particularly female ways with the style of leadership men employed, but how both answered God's call in service of the Church.

Teacher: Loretta Long Hunnicutt

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM "Don't Urge Me to Leave You"

Relationships are seen as disposable when people avoid committing themselves, whether it be in the church, at home, or in the workplace. Relationships flourish when there is commitment and loyalty.

Teachers: Antenor & Phyllis Goncalves

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Even That 1, Part 1

Jesus saw that 1 person no one else noticed. We can be more like Jesus.

Teacher: Rick Atchley

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Fending Off Chaos

Despite the intentions of the founders of the Stone-Campbell Movement, Churches of Christ find themselves in doctrinal disarray. This situation raises the questions of its healthiness, of its fruitfulness, of what we might do to remedy it, and of whether or not it should be remedied. In many cases we have moved beyond our previous sectarianism and insistence on uniformity, but must we now tolerate doctrinal anarchy or a kind of doctrinal morass?

Teacher: Kelly Carter

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Moving Forward in the Conversation, Part 1

Sally Gary and Pat Bills will explore next steps for churches to create safe places for the LGBT community and those who experience same-sex attraction while inviting the gospel to help re-imagine practical steps forward in the conversation.

Teachers: Pat Bills, Sally Gary

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM TO BE DETERMINED

Teacher: Randy Lowry

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Christians Are Born, Disciples Are Made

"If there is anything any of us should become great at, it's making disciples who can make disciples." -Mike Breen. This course is a look at discipleship as ministry, as opposed to as a ministry. We will discuss the necessity of discipleship, the 5 contexts of discipleship, and the 3 marks of a disciple.

Teacher: Rudy Hagood

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Global City, Global University, Global Impact

There is no more potent place for Kingdom impact than the American university campus. The great commission is working in reverse to bring the future leaders in every field of study from a hundred different countries to a single place. This class will discuss the need for new campus ministry plants and our plans to plant at the University of Washington, which is the largest university campus on the west coast in the most unchurched city in the nation.

Teacher: Daniel and Holly Jarchow Host: Stan Granberg

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Navigating The Church through a Sexually Saturated Culture

This session will look at how pornography is impacting the local church. The information will include the most recent statistics of pornography in the church and look specifically into the impact among pastors and marriages. The session will include a strategy for recovery and restoration creating a culture of hope and safety.

Teacher: Jeff Reinke Host: Sharon Hargrave

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Wisdom's Advice for Marriage and Family

While the Jewish Wisdom Literature has excellent thoughts concerning life, living for God, and nature, the texts offer powerful advice for dating, marriage, and parenting. Family relationships today can grow closer through the wisdom of these ancient sages.

Teachers: Ron & Lori Clark

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Reconnected: What We've Learned

After a decade of being reconnected, what have the Churches of Christ and Independent Christian Churches learned about each other and themselves? How are we different? How are we much the same? A panel of leaders whose ministries serve as points of connection between these two groups will discuss what we've learned over the past ten years.

Teacher: Phil Claycomb

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Live Your Calling

This lecture is designed for people who are discerning God's calling in their lives. How does God call us, how to pursue the call, and how to thrive in the call.

Teacher: Jason Darden

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM I Told Me So, Part 1

The heart is deceitful above all things, Jeremiah taught. Even the most devoted Christians and leaders are susceptible. This class, rich with fascinating stories, will empower you to recognize and overcome the self-deception that can quench the Spirit's work in your life or church.

Teacher: Tim Spivey

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Reformation 500, Part 1

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther posted his "95 Theses" on the door of the Wittenberg Church. To his surprise, that act helped ignite an epochal event in Christian history--the Protestant reformation movements of the 16th century. Here at the 500th anniversary, we focus on Luther's three central theological moves that changed the course of Christian history.

Teacher: Leonard Allen

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM What's Next? (When God Puts You in the Wrong Place)

What kind of God are we following when we end up in the "wrong" place? Encouragement to keep on!

Teachers: Sara Jackson, Emily Lemley

Wednesday 8:30-9:15 AM Song of Songs: Is it On Your Playlist?

A dangerous tune: "Do not awaken love before its time." Is the song a love poem or a cautionary tale?

Teacher: Charles Rix

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM From Goat Trails to Superhighways

The Psalms are the beloved song book of Israel. But how do you help them to become personalized and implanted in believers today? This class will explore innovative ways to help these beautiful passages gain a fresh hearing in contemporary times. They can still help our souls to soar.

Teacher: Mike Lewis

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Beyond All Shame, Part 1

Teacher: Chris Seidman

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Let the Walls Fall Down, Part 1

Teachers: Dudley Rutherford, Jeff Walling

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Empowering the Introverts

Deep thinkers, artists, and even just shy folk sometimes cringe at the 'greeting time' in the worship service. Come discuss practical ways to unleash the deep waters that churn beneath the surface of often the most peaceful souls.

Teacher: Shane Hughes

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM You Belong to A Trauma-(Mal)Formed Church

This session will explore the pervasiveness of trauma in every congregation, the challenges that are presented to our practices, our postures, and our theological commitments, and finally the possibilities that emerge when we take seriously the ways in which our churches have been (mal)formed by these experiences. Drawing on some of the most influential trauma research and in conversation with leading theologians working at the intersection of trauma and theology, this class will serve as an invitation toward imagining your ministry and your congregation as a place with the capacity to literally transform a traumatized world.

Teacher: Michael Hanegan

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM REVOLution: Turning Students Into Activists

The highest form of love is sacrificial engaging on behalf of the other. This is the example of Jesus Christ and this may be the spiritual formation piece missing in your ministry. How can we empower, equip and engage young people as a means for social change and spiritual growth?

Teacher: Eric Wilson

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Four Generations of Love

Come join the Love family as they reflect on 50+ years of ministry: the joys, transformations, and challenges that each generation has faced serving the kingdom of God. Stuart and D'Esta Love will share stories alongside their son, Mark, and two grandsons, Zach and Josh. They honor D'Esta's parent's Claude and Sammie Guild who paved the way in ministry within the Churches of Christ starting in the 1930s.

Moderator: Zach Love Panelists: Stuart & D'Esta Love, Josh Love, Mark Love

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Ruth and Boaz: Family Values in the Old Testament

Discovering the values and concerns guiding Ruth and Boaz, and how their example might inform our own family relationships.

Teacher: Tim Willis

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM The Story of Esther, Part 1

Teacher: Rubel Shelly

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM A Spouse's Journey With Pornography and The Road To Restoration

This session will confront the epidemic problem of pornography in the church through the eyes of a licensed Marriage and Family Therapist and the wife of a minister. Topics addressed will be: identifying the problem, how the brain is affected, how the marriage and family are affected, self talk for the spouse and how to talk to your kids about pornography.

Teacher: Robin Reinke Host: Sharon Hargrave

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM So What Is God Doing in Africa?, Part 1

Teachers: John Essel, Sam Shewmaker

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Diverse City, Part 1

There's so much confusion about racism in America today, while our churches are largely segregated and silent. The problem is that racism is a uniquely Christian sin, and the Christian faith has great resources to be a part of healing all the ways we've divided ourselves. Not through guilt or shame, but hope.

Teacher: Jonathan Storment

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM The Master and the Mentally Ill

Living in the weeds of mental illness is frustrating and confusing for all people involved. Jesus gives us hope. Hope for individuals, hope for families, and hope for friends. Beyond stereotypes and stigmas, Jesus helps us meet people where they are and love them as they are.

Teacher: Kyle Sapp

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Pepperdine's Christian Mission

Pepperdine University Chaplain, Sara Barton will lead a time of storytelling about what God is doing in the lives of Pepperdine students. Join us for testimony, worship, and prayer.

Teacher: Sara Barton

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM No More Doctrine, Part 1

Why we need to stop teaching and preaching doctrine.

Teacher: Chris Goldman

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Trust Without Borders

Spirit, lead me where my trust is without borders,' we sing. How can our worship foster trust in every aspect of who we are? This class will consider how our worship - Word, song, and table - can form communities of faith in everyday action.

Teacher: David Lemley

Wednesday 9:30-10:15 AM Proclaim Liberty to the Captives!

Our nation's jails are at maximum capacity. "I was in prison and you visited me" ...or did you? This harvest field is ripe! Come learn how easy it is for your members to get involved and why you should. Also, hear testimony from a former inmate. "What you have done to the least of these you have done unto ME. Come blessed of MY FATHER, inherit the Kingdom prepared for you."

Teachers: Vincent Boling, Zulla Heile, Virgil Weare

Wednesday 10:30-11:30 AM Morning Guest Speaker - DO NOT RECORD

Speaker: Bob Goff Worship Team: Won By One

Wednesday 4:30-6:15 PM Lunch at Amphitheatre Grill

Items can be purchased individually or with meal ticket. Meal ticket includes any sandwich or salad option, one side (chips or fruit cup), one drink, and one dessert. Does not include plated entrees.

Wednesday 11:30AM-1PM Lubbock Christian University Luncheon

Host: Tim Perrin

Wednesday 11:30AM-1PM Youth Ministries Luncheon

Hosts: Jeff Walling, Jack Williamson Speaker: Bob Goff

Wednesday 11:30 AM-1:30 PM Lunch at Waves Cafe

Accepting meal tickets purchased online or at the door.

Wednesday 11:30AM-1PM Harding School of Theology Luncheon

Host: Jim Martin

Wednesday 11:30AM-1PM World Christian Broadcasting Luncheon

Host: Andy Baker

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Wednesday 1-4:30 PM Making Waves Children's Program

For ages 6 months - 11 years old. Registration required online with medical release info. Please be mindful of picking up your child on time.

Director: Laureen Henegar

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Ruth: When God Provides

Teachers: Rudy Hagood, Tim Spivey

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM I Hope You Had the Time of Your Life, Part 1

Teacher: Chris Heard

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Shedding Light Amid Darkness, Part 1

Relating what we have learned about better communication of the Gospel through a deeper understanding of the time and place of the hearers.

Teachers: Edward Short, Lewis Short Host: Gayle Crowe

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Forgiving God: It's Sometimes What We Need to Do

Does God need our forgiveness, or is forgiving God something we need to do, or both? How do we process our suffering and God's responsibility? This is one of the great barriers many experience in drawing close to God or seeking God. This class explores this idea and provides counsel for this journey.

Teacher: John Mark Hicks

Wednesday 1:30-4:15 PM Families Experiencing Loss, Grief & Trauma

This practical session focuses on the impact of the loss of a parent, spouse, child, or sibling upon a family. Ministering at a time of terminal illness compared to sudden and/or traumatic events will be discussed. Specific recovery strategies will be presented with an emphasis upon rebuilding the family.

Teacher: Norman Wright Host: Sharon Hargrave

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Pilgrims Together

As churches seek to become more intentionally intergenerational, the most important question they can ask is "Why?" That is--what are the benefits for all ages when churches implement more cross-age ministry practices. This class will succinctly summarize surprising current research from both Christian education and sociology that supports intergenerationality. It will briefly overview biblical and theological foundations and offer an insightful rationale from learning theory explaining the unique processes that yield spiritual growth across the generations.

Teacher: Holly Allen

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM "But You Don't Look Sick!"

One out of three people in the United States live with a diagnosis of chronic illness, and at least 96% of these illnesses are invisible (I feel the symptoms but you can't see them). Studies have shown that the practice of one's faith greatly lessens the negative impact of illness. This is a huge untapped area of ministry! This class will explore the spiritual, relational, and physical impact of these diseases, and how congregations can go beyond casseroles and practically minister to those in their congregations and in the surrounding community.

Teacher: Judy Killom

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM The Sin of Certainty, Part 1

Doubt is not a sign of weak faith but a normal part of the journey of faith that leads to greater inner peace and trust in God.

Teacher: Peter Enns

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM The Confinement of Christ

Author Michael T. McRay spent four years regularly volunteering in a Tennessee maximum security prison, one year of which he served as a volunteer chaplain to men confined in the mental health pods--the most violent units in the prison. In the appendix of his new book "Where the River Bends: Considering Forgiveness in the Lives of Prisoners," McRay tells of encounters with these men, exposing the dehumanization, violence, and suffering of life behind prison walls. Each story ends with a prayer, attempting to find language for and to God amidst such devastation. In this session, McRay will share selections from these, discussing the spiritual rhythms of storytelling and prayer he used to process prison life. Taking to heart that Jesus is found among the "least of these," McRay sought to experience these encounters as run-ins with the actual body and blood of Christ.

Teacher: Michael T. McRay

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Restore Us to Yourself O Lord

Christian Spiritual Formation through suffering by practicing the teaching of Jesus Christ. Becoming Jesus focused.
Teacher: Tim Montoya

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Global God, Part 1 - DO NOT RECORD

God is both local and global. The mission Jesus gave His church is both local and global. The church needs to live into both.
Teacher: Josh Ross

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Finding God in Strange People and Scary Places, Part 1

God is opening up the Muslim world around the Mediterranean Rim in ways that shouldn't be surprising to Christians who know their Bibles and are open to God working through outsiders like Ruth.
Teachers: Dan Bouchelle, Phil Jackson

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Lamenting Our Way to Zion

Tragedies happen everyday, both personal and communal, and they do not fit well with faith. While the response of most people to tragedy is a desire to "get closure" as soon as possible, we serve a Savior who is called "a man of sorrows and acquainted with grief." In a world full of suffering and pain, if we are to get to Zion at all, we will have to travel with Jesus "Lamenting our way to Zion."
Teacher: Kenny Payne

Wednesday 1:30-4:15 PM Excursion: Getty Villa

Registration required online through your Bible Lectures registration.
Host: Cynthia Colburn

Wednesday 1:30-4:15 PM Excursion: Point Dume Nature Hike

Registration required online through your Bible Lectures registration.
Host: Steve Davis

Wednesday 1:30-4:30 PM Pepperdine View Teen Program

This interactive and fun program provides opportunities for these students to go deeper, build lifelong friendships, and leave ready to be leaders back home. From fun team-building activities to practical workshops, students will be challenged to apply the Bible Lectures to their youth groups, churches, and personal lives. Registration required online with medical release info.
Director: Lars Coburn

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Becoming a Point of Light

Teacher: Billy Curl

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM Unstuck: Creating Forward Movement in Your Church

Crippling concerns, fixed fiefdoms, leadership logjams and muddled missions all play their part stopping God's people in their tracks. Non-anxious leaders, equipped by God, can help their local church in practical ways to overcome these obstacles and move forward.
Teachers: Brad Cox, Jon Mullican

Wednesday 1:30-2:15 PM 5 Things Any Church Must Understand to Reach Generation Z

Teacher: Jayson French

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM On Being the Woman Minister

In Churches of Christ, women ministers face unique challenges as they carve out new paths. Similarly, the path for minister's husbands is not well-trodden. This is particularly heightened for women serving in preaching and associate roles. Expectations often involve role reversals, inconsistencies, and a lack of clarity. In this session, Jen Christy will share her experiences as an associate minister and her husband Dave will reflect on life as a minister's husband (who also happens to have a full-time job as a therapist outside of volunteer church work).
Teachers: Dave and Jennifer Christy

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Finding God in Pop Culture, Part 1

When Jesus said, "The stones will cry out," we may not have imagined that films like Hacksaw Ridge, Silence, and The Shack, TV shows like Blackish and Duck Dynasty, and musicians like Chance the Rapper and Katy Perry would celebrate God. Yet, here we are, finding signs of life across pop culture. This series will explore the power of general revelation--God's ability to communicate through whomever, wherever, and whenever--with a series of special guests who have produced some of the most inspiring stories.
Teacher: Craig Detweiler

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Wednesday 2:30-4:15 PM Special Challenges and Care for Ministers' Families

One of the challenges for elders and congregations is learning to care for the families of it's ministers. It is important that ministers understand some of the particular challenges their families might face. The purpose of the class is to provide awareness of issues and ministry opportunities.

Teacher: Jim Martin

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Multi-Cultural Singing - DO NOT RECORD

Nothing compares to the singing privilege of the royal priesthood

Teacher: Keith Lancaster

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM How Lonely Sits the Preacher, Part 1

The book of Lamentations explores the horrors of the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem and its aftermath. It also seeks to impose on the chaos of history the order of poetry while narrating Judah's sense of alienation and divine absence. This book's beautiful but harrowing poems speak to the modern world too. This class, then, examines Lamentations in its own setting and ours with an aim of helping preachers today find ways of speaking truthfully of human suffering and thereby transforming complaint into prayer.

Teacher: Mark Hamilton

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Making Sense of Mental Illness

Everyone experiences mental health struggles from time-to-time, and some in our church communities and families struggle with more chronic or severe challenges. Well-intended advice and fervent prayer doesn't always change those realities. This can cause great confusion for the person suffering, their families, friends, and their church community. This session, led by Pepperdine's Counseling Center Director will outline some of the issues involved and give practical tips about how to minister.

Teacher: Connie Horton

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM A For Time For Everything

In our polarized culture, and in the anxiety this often produces in life and leadership, it is sometimes difficult to keep perspective. In Ecclesiastes 3, we are reminded that often the best place to inhabit is the 'and,' embracing the normal push and pull of the human experience, and entering fully into each, whether it be breaking down and building up, silence and speech, etc.

Teacher: Carlus Gupton

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Bullies on the Playground

Too many congregations are held hostage by one dominant person who gets his or her way. Often, it's not about how the bully acts, but rather who puts up with it and why. There is a courageous way forward for the health and growth of everyone. It matters.

Teachers: Grady King, Jon Mullican

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Leaven Symposium, Part 1

Hosted by Leaven Journal, with guest panelists Danny Matthews and Cari Myers

Hosts: John Barton, Mark Love

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM An Unexpected Companion

Thought-provoking ideas are offered to family and professionals who desire to enrich the lives of those, 8 to 100+, who have special needs. "Paper Peggy: A Delightful Companion for 101-Year-Old Juanita" encourages participation, conversation, and memory stimulation with the use of 30 large full-color photos. Peggy put her trust in God as she traveled across the U.S. and returned to Juanita's care facility to share her adventures and challenges with the residents. Jim and Linda Naylor with over 20 years of caring for their parents will assist with the class presentation.

Teacher: Hildred Lockaby

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM The Changing Face of Youth Ministry Today

Teacher: Kurt Johnston

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Church Inside Out

Getting church members out of the building to bring outsiders in

Teacher: Tim Archer

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Follow Your Prayers

Your prayer life can function much like the seasons of a year. Sometimes conversation with God bustles with new life and possibilities, but other times it can seem lifeless, much like the long winter days where there is more darkness than light. Some people pray through the drought, and others simply stop praying. The book of Ruth offers a unique perspective on prayer. It explores the relationship between the prayer and the pray-er. In this class, you'll discover that what you do after you pray is just as important as what you do when you pray.

Teacher: Phil Brookman

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Fostering Faith

"Love is something if you give it away, you end up having more." While a simple jingle, it invites a simple response. Come hear one family's continuing journey of saying "Yes!" to loving children in need.

Teacher: Dustin Bartee

Wednesday 2:30-3:15 PM Love First, Part 1

Does your community look to your church for solutions to their most pressing problems? This session will explore the crisis of community irrelevance, and what we are doing to reverse this trend.

Teacher: Don McLaughlin

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM The Stories We Tell Ourselves, Part 1

All of us live according to the stories we privilege. This class, co-taught by a minister and leading teacher on the enneagram, will help participants clearly understand which stories are hijacking the courage we need to live a beautiful life.

Teachers: Joshua Graves, Suzanne Stabile

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Genesis, Genes, and Jesus

This session explores how new, race-conscious interpretations of the Bible emerged after the Civil War and how the theories of Charles Darwin paved the way for a "biblical" defense of White Supremacy and Jim Crow.

Teacher: Christopher Hutson

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Help and Hope for Family Caregivers

In a 2015 survey of family caregivers, 42% admit to feeling overwhelmed, 44% feel lonely, and 61% report changes in their personal health as a result of being a caregiver. The most common health changes reported were stress, anxiety, depression, social isolation, grief, weight gain, insomnia, high-blood pressure, and diabetes. In this session, we will preview the six-part video series, "Help and Hope for Family Caregivers," available online as a free resource for caregivers and faith communities interested in using it in a support group setting.

Teacher: Dana Robinson

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Unauthorized Rabbis

Year after year, modern day minstrels share stories every human has lived: moments (or seasons) in which we find ourselves haunted by specters of meaninglessness, worn down by relentless redundancy, and frustrated by ill-fated attempts at fulfillment. These songs and films aren't new, of course. Each one, in its own way, echoes the message of Ecclesiastes. In this session, we'll explore echoes and affirmations of the text that appear in music, film, and everyday life, considering how undeniably true and thoroughly false the preacher's musings are. And as we do, we'll be reminded of the complexity of reality, we'll see Ecclesiastes as bridge to an irreligious soul, and we'll understand afresh the safety of honest expression before God.

Teacher: Justin Gerhardt

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM The Prodigal Son: 4 Surprises That Americans Miss

Our social location as Americans causes us to miss some details in the parable. Be prepared to be surprised and to leave with some insights for reading Scripture better.

Teacher: Ken Cukrowski

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Meant Condition: Teaching the Virtuous Circle to Young People

A panel of student ministers from the San Francisco Bay Area share their principles and values for teaching Generation iY'ers in both the church and camp setting. Content and activities are developed around the EPIC model as espoused by Tim Elmore in "Generation iY" and Leonard Sweet in "Postmodern Pilgrims." Specific examples will be shared, including an attempt to teach students the Virtuous Circle as discussed by N. T. Wright in "After You Believe." Discussion will also include the benefits of the camp context and how to apply these principles in local student ministry and church setting.

Teachers: Jordan & Corridan Coss, Chris Dunning, Jacob & Lisa Parnell

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM What is the Christian to do with Sports?

It is difficult to overstate how powerful sports are in American culture. Sports is one of the most powerful economic forces in our society, it creates some of our wealthiest and most famous celebrities, and usurps more people's free time than just about any other hobby or leisure activity. Somehow, this amazing cultural force has largely been neglected of serious, critical attention by Christian scholars, theologians, and pastors. Few aspects of culture pose as many challenges and threats to Christian faith, while also offering immense potential benefits. In this session, we'll search for a biblical foundation for a proper role of sports in the lives of Christ followers while seeking to disentangle ourselves from the sports-obsessed culture within which we live. We'll consider the challenges that sports increasingly presents to young athletes, their parents, and their pastors. This session asks challenging questions of current practices in sports while seeking a redemptive place for our favorite pastimes.

Teacher: Adam Metz

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM The Church in the Secular Age, Part 1

How shall we understand sexuality in a world where Christian assumptions no longer hold sway?

Teacher: Randy Harris

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Borrowed Touchstones, Part 1

Proposing an informal embrace of liturgical seasons and feasts, this session explores practices focused on the incarnation: Advent, Christmas, and Epiphany.

Teacher: Larry Mudd

Teacher: Rick Marrs

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Improving Congregational Wellness, Part 1

"The doctor who treats himself has a fool for a patient." Sometimes church leaders are the least equipped to evaluate the true health of their congregations. But there are tools available to help leaders assess congregational wellness. How healthy is your church? Do you really want to know?

Teachers: Mark Frost, Doug Peters, Phil Ware, Tim Woodroof

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM The 125th Birthday of Nashville Bible School

When David Lipscomb and James A. Harding founded the Nashville Bible School in 1891 they envisioned a movement as well as a school. This movement would populate the national and international landscape of Churches of Christ with "Bible Schools" or Colleges to prepare people for ministry in the kingdom of God as teachers, farmers, and doctors among other professions. They founded a school (and tradition) dedicated to discipling people, designed to help the poor, and fueled by a missional vision of life.

Teacher: John Mark Hicks Host: Jerry Rushford

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM Transformed: Intimacy with God

Based on Psalm 46:10 to "be still and know that I am God." Learn how to use the four inward spiritual disciplines to have a deeper relationship with God and be transformed. You will learn how to draw intimately close to God with a greater love, zeal, and devotion. This in turn will help you to have better relationships with others in all areas of your life--based on powerful, practical Biblical principles.

Teachers: Anthony & Cheryl Fischetto

Wednesday 3:30-4:15 PM 3 Keys to Missional Transformation, Part 1

False starts at missional transformation can frequently be traced back to leaders who attempt to instigate change through teaching and telling rather than modeling. In this session, we will talk about the power of seeing missional transformation embodied in the life of a leader.

Teacher: Tod Vogt

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Even That 1, Part 2

Jesus saw that 1 no one else noticed. We can be more like Jesus.

Teacher: Rick Atchley

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Go Small to Win Big

We believe church in a post-Christian culture is going to be intentionally small and highly focused on local neighborhoods, that it will have a deep concern for creating multiple spaces where people will encounter Jesus. We will share several key discoveries from our church planting work in Seattle that will help capture a vision for building church in a post-everything world.

Teachers: Jared and Laura King Host: Stan Granberg

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Reformation 500, Part 2

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther posted his "95 Theses" on the door of the Wittenberg Church. To his surprise, that act helped ignite an epochal event in Christian history--the Protestant reformation movements of the 16th century. Here at the 500th anniversary, we focus on Luther's three central theological moves that changed the course of Christian history.

Teacher: Dyron Daughrity Host: Leonard Allen

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Redefining Your "We": Doing Church in an Age of Misplaced Loyalties

As Christians we are habitually tempted to focus on the wrong we or to simply make our version of we far too small. In this day of political rancor and hatred, however, what should define us? What does authentic faith look like in a day of fracturing societies and churches?

Teacher: Jason Locke

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Moving Forward in the Conversation, Part 2

Sally Gary and Pat Bills will explore next steps for churches to create safe places for the LGBT community and those who experience same-sex attraction while inviting the gospel to help re-imagine practical steps forward in the conversation.

Teachers: Pat Bills, Sally Gary

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Better Together (Part 1: An Elder/Preacher's Perspective of Preachers)

Teacher: Kevin Withem

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Unarmed Empire, Part 1

Shunned. Condemned. Controlled. Describing church, believers and nonbelievers deploy stinging terms to define an imperial, culturally privileged, and powerful American force. Church has become synonymous with shame, exclusion, and hostility. This is not the church of Jesus. The church of Jesus is for everyone who feels blacklisted by believers, everyone who has been hurt. Let's find out how we can become that church...together.

Teacher: Sean Palmer

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Ingrained: What Esther Teaches About Minorities, the Marginal and "Monsters"

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Our culture's and our church's first step toward those with whom we differ is often condemnation. The book of Esther reveals a far more redemptive first step--whether it's toward minorities, the LGBTQ community, those who've made moral missteps, or those in the margins.

Teacher: Chris Altrock

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM TO BE DETERMINED

Teacher: Randy Lowry

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Hope in the Age of Climate Change, Part 1

It is difficult to be hopeful in the midst of news about climate change. While the Christian basis for hope is the resurrection of Jesus, unfortunately far too many Christians do not connect this belief with the daily witness of their faith. This session focuses on the release of a new book, "Hope in the Age of Climate Change," which argues that the resurrection proclaims a notion of hope that should be the foundation of a theology of creation care which manifests itself explicitly in the daily lives of believers. Christian hope not only inspires us to do great and courageous things, but also serves as a critique of current hopeless systems and powers that degrade humans, nonhumans, and the rest of creation. It should impact the way we think about ourselves as human beings, ultimately leading us to humility. An ecologically informed and sensitive theology that sees God's work as Creator and Redeemer, radically affirmed in Christ's resurrection, can meet the challenge of being hopeful in the age of climate change.

Teacher: Chris Doran

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM #blessed, Part 1

Before it became a common hashtag, #blessed was the first word of Jesus' most famous sermon. And Jesus seems to mean something very different than we mean on social media. Who is #blessed?

Teacher: Collin Packer

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Forming the Generations

What kind of spiritual formation might happen if you brought together diverse generations in an intentional way? In this class we will explore the experience of one church that attempted an intergenerational experience. We will listen to what they did, what they learned about spiritual formation, and how your church might become a more intentionally intergenerational community of faith.

Teacher: Wilson McCoy

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM I Told Me So, Part 2

The heart is deceitful above all things,' Jeremiah taught. Even the most devoted Christians and leaders are susceptible. This class, rich with fascinating stories, will empower you to recognize and overcome the self-deception that can quench the Spirit's work in your life or church.

Teacher: Tim Spivey

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Jesus and the Dao, an Exercise in Comparative Theology

While participating in cross-cultural ministry, it is important to learn about and from other cultures and religious traditions. This class will include reflections from an American ministering in the Chinese context. Attention will be given to comparative theology, one particular method of cross-cultural learning, with special focus on Daoism.

Teacher: Travis Myers

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Ministry for Survivors of Intimate Partner Abuse

Intimate partner abuse occurs in all communities including faith based communities. This presentation will provide an overview of the dynamics of intimate partner abuse and the ways churches can become sanctuaries for those who are facing its consequences. Faith based responsiveness will include liturgy, counseling, education, and community collaboration. Biblical support will be provided for the creation of ministry initiatives to assist those in recovery from these intimate wounds.

Teacher: Thema Bryant-Davis Host: Sharon Hargrave

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Fatal Attraction: "Love, Strong As Death"

Is love inescapable, and if so how do we negotiate its power?

Teacher: Charles Rix

Thursday 8:30-9:15 AM Scripture and the Human Being, Part 1

The work of Landon Saunders over the past 40+ years has changed and challenged the church in many ways. One fundamental challenge he continues to present is how we interpret and apply scripture in our lives and communities. He has put forward a hermeneutic that places the human being in the center. This session will explore how one might employ this hermeneutic through an examination of texts in the Gospel of Mark.

Teacher: Charissa W. Wilson

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Scum of the Earth, Part 1

In 1 Corinthians 1-4, Paul lays out his philosophy of Christian ministry and leadership. A close reading of these chapters reveals why most contemporary churches would never hire Paul to be their preacher. This first session focuses on Paul's counter-intuitive approach to church growth.

Teacher: Wade Hodges

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Please Understand Me!, Part 1

Have you ever been bothered by the congregational pronouncement, "If that song didn't bring you to tears, there's something wrong with you?" Have you ever been befuddled when the book you recommended as profoundly meaningful lies untouched on a friend's shelf? Despite our tendency to view differences between us and those around us as indications that something is wrong with us (or more often, with "them"), the first session of this two-session class will introduce a spiritual typology that might give us language to name and understand individual and congregational spirituality types. (Class title borrowed from David Keirse's work on Myers-Briggs personality types.)

Teacher: Naomi Walters

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM "At the Bedside with Qohelet", Part 1

Often in a crisis situation, our assumptions are challenged and deep questions of faith arise. For those committed to pastoral care as an essential form of leadership in a church, we need to prepare ourselves with how to respond thoughtfully and with compassion to those existential questions. Ecclesiastes is a strong introduction to deep questions and some basic principles that provide guidance in such situations. We will look at some key passages, share stories from our years of experience in hospitals and church crisis situations, and reflect together on how we can serve others in the name of Jesus, who suffers with us and became our good news "under the sun."

Teachers: Russ Corley, Mark Manassee

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM So What Is God Doing in Africa?, Part 2

Teachers: Dalton and Maureen Mutshinya, Sam Shewmaker

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Finding God Through Seasons of Unanswered Prayers

We will look at the issue of unanswered prayer in the books of Ruth and Esther and will discover that it is only by going through our own period of lamentations that we will discover the God of the Song of Songs who loves us more than we could ever imagine.

Teacher: Steve Kay

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Why the Church Needs Feminism

What is shame, and how does it affect our relationships with one another? How does sexism infiltrate our pulpits and potlucks, and what can we do about it? Does rape culture thrive in the church? And if so, how do we recognize it? We know that one out of every four women will be a victim of physical or sexual assault at some point in her life. But what about those in the church? In a world that struggles to acknowledge their dignity and worth, the Church must stand counter-culturally in its treatment of women. Come explore with us, as we seek to dismantle the environments that breed abuse and start building up communities that affirm the Imago Dei in each and every person—women included!

Teacher: Kaitlin Shetler

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Boaz and Ruth: In the World but Not of the World

Gaining inspiration from Boaz and Ruth, as they strive to stay true to God in the challenging days of the judges.

Teacher: Tim Willis

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Diverse City, Part 2

With every church Paul planted, he was addressing the very issue that is at the heart of much of the current day American news cycle: racism. Paul's letters envision a church that can be a laboratory of love and racial reconciliation. It's time to reclaim that vision in our own churches.

Teacher: Jonathan Storment

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Beyond All Shame, Part 2

Teacher: Chris Seidman

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM A Time to Preach

This class is for the person who preaches occasionally on a fill-in basis. There is a perception in churches that a sermon won't be powerful or compelling on a day when the regular preacher isn't delivering the message. That doesn't have to be the case. We will discuss perceptions, attendance impact, strategies for making the most of an opportunity to preach, and the advantages that come with only preaching every once in a while.

Teacher: Zach Sewell

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM No More Doctrine, Part 2

Learning to teach, preach, and lead towards "life."

Teacher: Chris Goldman

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Ministering to Abusive Partners

Within the church there are persons who have abused their spouses emotionally, physically, sexually, financially, and spiritually. This workshop will describe the dynamics of abusive partners and the ways the church can play a role in their transformation. Ministry initiatives that will be described include liturgy, pastoral care, accountability circles, and community collaboration. Church leaders will learn important do's and don'ts for addressing this pervasive and challenging area of ministry. As a church we have to move from silence and denial to active intercession in the spirit and in the physical realm.

Teacher: Thema Bryant-Davis Host: Sharon Hargrave

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM The Story of Esther, Part 2

Teacher: Rubel Shelly

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Who Do We Think We Are? - DO NOT RECORD

Our worship practices imply a theology, and our theology is embedded in our worship. This class considers these questions: What does Church of Christ worship indicate about our view of ourselves and our place before God? How might a better understanding of human nature and the Incarnation improve how we approach God in worship?

Teacher: Darryl Tippens

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Let the Walls Fall Down, Part 2

Teachers: Dudley Rutherford, Jeff Walling

Thursday 9:30-10:15 AM Dead Like Rover: Dead All Over? Maybe Not!

We often hear it said that the people of the OT did not believe in a resurrection from the dead. Is that true? This class explores what the regular person may have believed about death and the afterlife. While we will make reference to God's ultimate teaching on the subject, our primary concern will be to look at the beliefs of the average man on the street.

Teacher: Brian Sandine

Thursday 10:30-11:30 AM Morning Keynote: Ecclesiastes, Part 1

Speaker: Tom Robinson Worship Leader: D.J. Bulls

Thursday 1:30-4:15 PM Reframing Anxiety as God at Work in Our Lives

In this session you will learn how to better identify what anxiety is, tools to help manage anxiety, and how to reframe anxiety as God working in our lives.

Teacher: Rhett Smith Host: Sharon Hargrave

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM I Hope You Had the Time of Your Life, Part 2

Teacher: Chris Heard

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Finding God in Strange People and Scary Places, Part 2

God is opening up the Muslim world around the Mediterranean Rim in ways that shouldn't be surprising to Christians who know their Bibles and understand God can work through oppressed and vulnerable exiles like Esther.

Teachers: Dan Bouchelle, Chris Shelby

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Believing the Unbelievable in an Unbelieving World

Pastoring unbelievers requires empathizing with their suspicions of our faith. In this class, Benjamin will teach a self-deprecating discipleship that will help believers connect with unbelievers on the unbeliever's terms.

Teacher: Benjamin Neeley

Thursday 1:30-4:30 PM Pepperdine View Teen Program

This interactive and fun program provides opportunities for these students to go deeper, build lifelong friendships, and leave ready to be leaders back home. From fun team-building activities to practical workshops, students will be challenged to apply the Bible Lectures to their youth groups, churches, and personal lives. Registration required online with medical release info.

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Global God, Part 2 - DO NOT RECORD

God is both local and global. The mission Jesus gave His church is both local and global. The church needs to live into both.

Teacher: Josh Ross

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM The Necessity of Lonely Places

Jesus didn't wait for ministry to slow down before taking time for prayer. Instead, when opportunities abounded he "often withdrew to lonely places and prayed." Building into one's annual calendar a private prayer retreat is one way to find the renewal, refreshment and vision necessary to do the work of ministry. This class will be taught by one who was rescued from the verge of total burnout by learning to spend "much time in secret with Jesus alone." Practical methods and advice will be given from 19 years of experience in taking one week each year to go to a lonely place for prayer.

Teacher: Byron Fike

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Dinner With a Sodomite

The story of Sodom has been viewed as a warning against sexual depravity, but what if the Sin of Sodom has to do with something more mundane--hospitality? What might we learn from a meal with a Sodomite?

Teacher: Jordan Hubbard

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Worldview Wizards

What do ISIS, Joel Osteen, and Rap Culture all have in common? Why aren't Millennials committing their time to your church? How is the Toyota Camry the key to understanding the rise of the megachurch? It all comes down to worldview. A basic understanding of a worldview model called Spiral Dynamics can help churches and leaders learn to navigate our changing cultural landscape with wisdom and grace.

Teacher: Mark Hadley

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM The Sin of Certainty, Part 2

Doubt is not a sign of weak faith but a normal part of the journey of faith that leads to greater inner peace and trust in God.

Teacher: Peter Enns

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Church Music: From Jerusalem to Chris Tomlin

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

This presentation discusses the history of church music from New Testament times to today. Join Dyron Daugherty as he guides us through 20 centuries of Christian worship: Jewish music, early Christianity, Eastern Orthodoxy, medieval monasteries, Bach, Fannie J. Crosby, Black gospel, Amy Grant, and all the way to the chart-dominance of Lecrae and Chris Tomlin.

Teacher: Dyron Daugherty

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM How Can We Bring the Generations Together?

As churches seek to become more intentionally intergenerational, the most pressing question they ask is, "How?" This class will discuss and demonstrate five successful emerging intergenerational practices.

Teacher: Holly Allen

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM A Time to Live and a Time to Die

An open forum and Q&A session with a California licensed funeral director and preacher of 30+ years. No sales. No pressure. No agenda. Just answering your questions about dying, death, and funeral options.

Teacher: Greg England

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Getting Unstuck, Part 1

Everyone likes to think their church is unique--that if you knew their story you'd understand why they're stuck. But the reality is there are only 5 problems in churches. If your church keeps running into the same issues over and over again, if you're tired of pushing the stone up the hill only to have it roll back down again, if you're ready to get past the things that have you stuck, then this session is for you.

Teacher: John Alan Turner

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Defending God: When Theodicy Fails

Our attempts to justify God in the face of the world's ills and evils are intellectually and emotionally exhausting. What is a believer to do? This class offers some perspective from the Gospel story and provides counsel for the journey.

Teacher: John Mark Hicks

Thursday 1:30-2:15 PM Changing the World through Stories

This class will showcase how I witnessed films stirring the hearts around me to help those near and far. I will provide examples of what goes into my short films and what simple actions you can do to increase the impact of your stories.

Teacher: Matt Maxwell

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Fertile Soil for Weary Hearts, Part 1

The gospel of John gives us a captivating image of Jesus that is important for us all to dive deeply into.

Teacher: Bryan Schackmann

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Eyes Wide Open

"Curiouser and curiouser!" The words of Alice aptly describe the experience of so many in the strange land of the Song of Songs. Readers, past and present, encounter a text that moves and curves in ways mundane and wondrous. This class will explore Gregory of Nyssa's journey into the Song of Songs, a journey for the soul in a strange land of bodies.

Teacher: Trevor Thompson

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Love First, Part 2

We live by what we truly believe, so our "creed" really matters. Our forefathers inspired us with the challenge to have "No Creed but Christ." This session will explore the Christ-Creed and why it is crucial to becoming a vibrant presence in our communities.

Teacher: Don McLaughlin

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM God's Word and My Story, Part 1

In conversations with skeptical acquaintances or questioning grandchildren, followers of Jesus need to be able to explain their trust in the Bible as well as share their own experience of faith. This two part class will equip you to do both with grace and Christ-centered confidence.

Teacher: Taylor Walling

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM How Lonely Sits the Preacher, Part 2

The book of Lamentations explores the horrors of the Babylonian destruction of Jerusalem and its aftermath. It also seeks to impose on the chaos of history the order of poetry while narrating Judah's sense of alienation and divine absence. This book's beautiful but harrowing poems speak to the modern world too. This class, then, examines Lamentations in its own setting and ours with an aim of helping preachers today find ways of speaking truthfully of human suffering and thereby transforming complaint into prayer.

Teacher: Mark Hamilton

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Finding God in Pop Culture, Part 2

When Jesus said, "The stones will cry out," we may not have imagined that films like Hacksaw Ridge, Silence, and The Shack, TV shows like Blackish and Duck Dynasty, and musicians like Chance the Rapper and Katy Perry would celebrate God. Yet, here we are, finding signs of life across pop culture. This series will explore the power of general revelation--God's ability to communicate through whomever, wherever, and whenever--with a series of special guests who have produced some of the most inspiring stories.

Teacher: Craig Detweiler

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Dozens of New Churches in 10 Years

The story of the church planting movement in Matanzas, Cuba

Teacher: Tony Fernandez

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Leaven Symposium, Part 2

Hosted by Leaven Journal

Hosts: John Barton, Mark Love Speaker: Peter Enns

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM High Tides, Tidal Waves, and Tsunamis

We will explore sustainable rhythms of spiritual practices for seasons of busyness, seasons of change, and seasons of displacement.

Teacher: Rhesa Higgins

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Words to Live By

A study of NT passages using the word "spiritual" and a look at what that means for Christian Living.

Teacher: Ann Ferguson Doyle

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Serving the Poor, Without Hurting the Poor

Open up your bible and, on any given page, you'll discovered God's heart for the poor. The church has responded obediently to the call to serve the poor. But in my experience living in impoverished communities for nearly a decade, I have witnessed many churches endorse practices that result in harm instead of healing. Through my own testimony, Jesus' example, and some time laughing at ourselves, I hope to point toward practices that uplift the poor without hurting the poor.

Teacher: Todd Dildine

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Love Rules

This class will investigate the rich themes of love running through scripture as we are invited, repeatedly, to love God, love neighbors, and even love enemies.

Teacher: Aaron Metcalf

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM The Lost Mission

The Lost Mission is the "endeared" name given to the 22nd California Mission that was never built. It can only be speculated on why this little chapel at the Rancho Camulos lost its mission. Maybe the missionaries had become physically fatigued and the task of building the mission became impossible? I'll never know, but it made me re-evaluate the seriousness of God's mission in my life. For the past 11 years, my family's focus and passion has been "Mission Santa Paula." Come and hear what God has done, is doing, and will continue to do in our lives and in the small agriculture community of Santa Paula, California. Let's use the "Lost Mission" as a motivator.

Teacher: Robert Perez

Thursday 2:30-3:15 PM Making Healthy Pulpit Transitions

All churches potentially face the challenge of an empty pulpit. In this class, the incoming preacher and outgoing preacher of the Cordova Church of Christ in Rancho Cordova, CA will discuss the successful transition of the preaching ministry at Cordova in 2016. Their experience can serve as a model for other churches. The process seeks to address the problem of future empty pulpits.

Teachers: Jimmy Hurd, Kyle Sapp

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Moments of Truth

Teacher: Jon Reed

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM The Gravity of Grace, Part 2

Teacher: Rhonda Lowry

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Remain Silent?

In this session, Eleni will be sharing the experience of reaching out to the refugee community in Athens and how God has used His people at a time like this: the time and place where God has brought people out of the darkness into His amazing light and how they are seeking for Him and hungry for His love and compassion. Hear beautiful love stories of God reaching out to these people and how they respond. This opportunity to share Jesus has changed us forever and many of our refugee friends. They will see Heaven because many of us were not silent.

Teacher: Eleni Melirrytou

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM From Nashville to Bethany in 2016

The Disciples of Christ Historical Society (DCHS) holds the world's largest collection of Stone-Campbell materials. The collection contains rare personal items of Alexander Campbell and other well-known individuals from the Stone-Campbell Movement. It also contains an extensive collection of books, periodicals, personal papers, biographical files, congregational files, photographs and microfilm. This session will introduce the DCHS archives collection, tell the story of the 2016 relocation from Nashville, Tennessee to Bethany, West Virginia and give an update on the status of the collection. (Hosted by the Rushford Center for Research on Churches of Christ)

Teacher: Shelley Jacobs Host: Jerry Rushford

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Now Trending

Pornography is ruining our society and our churches. This huge elephant in the room has extreme psychological and spiritual ramifications for the men and women who struggle with this addiction. It is time to break the cycle and see porn for what it really is: the enemy's distortion of God's most holy union.

Teacher: Javon Johnson

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Improving Congregational Wellness, Part 2

If you want to be physically healthy, pay attention to diet and exercise. If you want to be healthier as a church, pay attention to...what? There are a few "healthy church habits" every church can develop to keep Christ's body in shape.

Teachers: Mark Frost, Doug Peters, Phil Ware, Tim Woodroof

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM 3 Keys to Missional Transformation, Part 2

Often the Kingdom of God breaks forth in small, seemingly imperceptible ways while we look for spectacular and monumental shifts. In this session, we will explore how small influences over time produces great results.

Teacher: Tod Vogt

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM For Such a Time as This, Part 2

Teacher: Rick Marrs

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM The Church in the Secular Age, Part 2

In a violent world that professes to be non-violent, what should we make of the apparently violent God of the Bible?

Teacher: Randy Harris

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Black People, White People, and Cake Baking

What two young preachers learned from each other about unity, diversity, and reconciliation in the Kingdom.

Teachers: Tim Anderson, Ryan Lassiter

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM The Stories We Tell Ourselves, Part 2

This session will equip participants to name the kinds of stories that hijack our courage from childhood to our contemporary experience.

Teachers: Joshua Graves, Suzanne Stabile

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM How Long Should a Preacher Stay Put?, Part 1

Only in recent decades have most ministers in Churches of Christ served a congregation for more than five years. This two-day class will explore the pros and cons of having a minister for ten years or more, and what a productive long-tenure requires of a minister, a leadership and a congregation.

Teacher: David Schulze Panelists: Steve Ink, DeWayne Winrow

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM No Rules; Just Right, Part 1

For over 150 years the church of Christ has been striving to restore "the first century church." Perhaps a more life-changing goal would be to restore first century spirituality. This first session will discuss the early church's spiritual context and early Christian's understanding of the sacred and profane. Understanding this environment can help Christians today focus on what is important.

Teacher: David Srygley

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Borrowed Touchstones, Part 2

There is deep meaning and beauty to be found in keeping an annual cadence centered on major themes and events in the life of Christ. In this session we explore opportunities linked to the cross, the empty grave, and the Holy Spirit through Lent, Holy Week, and Pentecost.

Teacher: Larry Mudd

Thursday 3:30-4:15 PM Navigating the Now and the Not Yet

As followers of Jesus Christ we live in the reality of a kingdom that is not yet fully realized. Since the beginning, followers of Jesus have sought to navigate the tension between the now and the not yet, between heaven and earth, between the flesh and the spirit. This session will look to the stories of a fictional lawyer, an outcast preacher, and a college history professor to reflect on how we as believers might live out courageous and grace-filled lives in the midst of uncertain times.

Teacher: Tim Perrin

Thursday 4:15-5:30 PM Associated Women for Pepperdine Reception

We are excited to feature a new book during our reception: The President Will See You Now, A Memoir (My Stories and Lessons from Ronald Reagan's Final Years), written by Pepperdine alumna, Peggy Grande. She will be available for book signings at this time.

Thursday 4:30-6 PM Pepperdine Enrollment Interest Dinner

For students and their families who are interested in attending Pepperdine.

Host: Kristy Collins

Thursday 4:30-6:15 PM Dinner at Amphitheatre Grill

Items can be purchased individually or with meal ticket. Meal ticket includes any sandwich or salad option, one side (chips or fruit cup), one drink, and one dessert. Does not include plated entrees.

Thursday 4:30-6:15 PM Dinner at Waves Cafe

Accepting meal tickets purchased online or at the door.

Thursday 6-9 PM Making Waves Children's Program

- Friday 8 AM-4:15 PM Connecting Young Adults and The Church (How Talking About Sex and Relationships Brings Young Adults Closer to God)
Ministry to young adults (ages 18-28) is a significant problem for many churches. Relationship IQ targets this unique life stage and gives the church a ministry tool to reach and disciple young adults. This all-day training will teach you how to use the powerful rIQ material in your own setting and address current issues such as dating, sex, cohabitation, boundaries, and communication. You will receive the Relationship IQ Leader's Manual and be certified as a Relationship IQ Instructor. This is also an excellent resource to promote intergenerational relationships within the church family. Equip your young adults for healthy relationships and help them draw closer to God. (There will be a lunch break 12-1 PM.) A special PBL rate of $250 includes the training and the Relationship IQ Leader's Manual. Register online at familytrack\_2017.eventbrite.com.
Teacher: Hannah Parmelee
- Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Even That 1, Part 3

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Jesus saw that 1 no one else noticed. We can be more like Jesus.

Teacher: Rick Atchley

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Moving Forward in the Conversation, Part 3

Sally Gary and Pat Bills will explore next steps for churches to create safe places for the LGBT community and those who experience same-sex attraction while inviting the gospel to help re-imagine practical steps forward in the conversation.

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Do Singles Fit in Your Church?

As the average age of marriage continues to rise, increasing numbers of people find themselves single in the traditional family-centric church. Singles often feel misunderstood and uncared for while church leaders struggle to include them. This lecture will explore the emotional experience of never-married singles through the framework of ambiguous loss, giving language to express the difficulties of waiting for someone who might not come. We will offer several practical suggestions, both personal and programmatic, on how to help singles feel known and find belonging in your congregation.

Teachers: Kelly and Adam Haer Host: Sharon Hargrave

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Art + Faith = Worship

Calling all artists and creatives (Yes, YOU!) its time to unleash the arts to inspire your church to write, paint, sing, play, and dance to the glory of God and the beauty of the church. This class will investigate the relationship between art and faith, and explore practical ways to incorporate the arts into our times of worship.

Teacher: Heather Hodges

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Fear Less, Trust More

Whether we realize it or not, fear paralyzes each of us. In some way, form, or fashion, we are all driven by the anxiety that wreaks havoc on our decisions, attitudes, and behaviors. Yet, it doesn't have to be this way. Scripture is constantly reminding us not to dwell on our fear but rather find courage in the One who is in control. This class takes a look at the power of fear in our lives and the remedy that scripture lays out for us to combat those demons.

Teacher: Jeff Hubbard

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Scripture and the Human Being, Part 2

The work of Landon Saunders over the past 40+ years has changed and challenged the church in many ways. One fundamental challenge he continues to present is how we interpret and apply scripture in our lives and communities. He has put forward a hermeneutic that places the human being in the center. This session will explore how one might employ this hermeneutic through an examination of texts in the Gospel of Mark.

Teacher: Charissa W. Wilson

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Growing Young (Connecting With 18-29 Year Olds)

Based on the best selling book, "Growing Young," from the Fuller Youth Institute, this class will focus on ways in which churches around the country are connecting with young adults in meaningful ways. Ministers and members from Conejo Valley Church of Christ in Thousand Oaks, CA will share their experience of putting some of these ideas into practice.

Teacher: Jack Williamson

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Better Together, Part 2

Teacher: Kevin Withem

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM A Song in Sermon: Preaching the Song of Songs

How do we imagine the world of the Song and its message for today

Teacher: Doug Peters

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Reformation 500, Part 3

On October 31, 1517, Martin Luther posted his "95 Theses" on the door of the Wittenberg Church. To his surprise, that act helped ignite an epochal event in Christian history--the Protestant reformation movements of the 16th century. Here at the 500th anniversary, we focus on Luther's three central theological moves that changed the course of Christian history.

Teacher: Lauren Smelser White Host: Leonard Allen

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM The Real Reason Your Kids Hate Church

Your kids' dissatisfaction with church is in fact a reflection of your own discontent. You've lost interest/belief/passion in and for the experience of following Jesus. How can you revive your own faith and bring the possibility of spiritual awakening to our families and our churches?

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Teacher: Jason Locke

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM The Next Generation Speaks

Finalists from the Next Gen Preacher Search share their messages.

Host: Jeff Walling

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM A Hero's Journey

Hollywood frequently re-tells a well known story in a new setting in order to bypass our preconceived notions and prejudices. In doing so, we re-hear a story for the first time. In this session, participants will consider what it means to honestly be called into Christ's Kingdom ministry.

Teacher: Kevin Woods Host: Stan Granberg

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Hope in the Age of Climate Change, Part 2

It is difficult to be hopeful in the midst of news about climate change. While the Christian basis for hope is the resurrection of Jesus, unfortunately far too many Christians do not connect this belief with the daily witness of their faith. This session focuses on the release of a new book, "Hope in the Age of Climate Change," which argues that the resurrection proclaims a notion of hope that should be the foundation of a theology of creation care which manifests itself explicitly in the daily lives of believers. Christian hope not only inspires us to do great and courageous things, but also serves as a critique of current hopeless systems and powers that degrade humans, nonhumans, and the rest of creation. It should impact the way we think about ourselves as human beings, ultimately leading us to humility. An ecologically informed and sensitive theology that sees God's work as Creator and Redeemer, radically affirmed in Christ's resurrection, can meet the challenge of being hopeful in the age of climate change.

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Unarmed Empire, Part 2

Human beings possess a distinct and disturbing trait: We believe God is on our side (as well as the side of others who are like us). Oftentimes, others are excluded from our vision of what God is up to in the world. This was the case in the time of the first Christians. However, the scriptures reveal that from the beginning God had a grander vision than our individual sin and guilt.

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM #blessed, Part 2

#blessed is the one of the most misused hashtags on social media. We use it to describe a life of ease and comfort. Jesus pronounces blessing very differently. Who is blessed in the kingdom? You might be surprised.

Teacher: Collin Packer

Friday 8:30-9:15 AM Sexual Trauma and the Church

While churches ought to be safe spaces for survivors of sexual trauma, too often they are full of persons, theology, and stimuli that re-traumatize those who already bear deep wounds of abuse. Drawing from Mallory's dissertation research, she will share how we can shape our ministry--and our selves--to be life-giving and redemptive for trauma survivors.

Teacher: Mallory Wyckoff

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM More Than We Bargained For

Luke 5 showcases some of the first interactions of Jesus with individuals, revealing that discipleship may be both more challenging and more intensely rewarding than first anticipated.

Teacher: Ken Mick

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Who Do We Think God Is? - DO NOT RECORD

This class addresses these questions: What does our communal worship reveal about our understanding of God? How might our worship change if we had a more biblically grounded view of God's nature? What can other Christian traditions teach us about honoring the Creator in worship?

Teacher: Darryl Tippens

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM So What Is God Doing in Africa?, Part 3

Teachers: Peter Egure, Sam Shewmaker

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM A Time to Write

This class is not for veteran writers. It's for the novice who is thinking about publishing for the first time, and who is especially interested in self-publishing. We will discuss resources for new writers, strategies for identifying your book's target audience, self-publishing options, helpful online tools, and resources for formatting and cover design.

Teacher: Zach Sewell

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM The Evangelistic Rhythm of The Introvert

Many feel evangelism is tailor-made for extroverts. The rest of us are left with feelings of guilt and the desire to be more outgoing. The truth is introverts have a place in evangelism and church leaders can help them find their place.

Teacher: Jeff Keele

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM “At the Bedside with Qohelet”, Part 2

Often in a crisis situation, our assumptions are challenged and deep questions of faith arise. For those committed to pastoral care as an essential form of leadership in a church, we need to prepare ourselves with how to respond thoughtfully and with compassion to those existential questions. Ecclesiastes is a strong introduction to deep questions and some basic principles that provide guidance in such situations. We will look at some key passages, share stories from our years of experience in hospitals and church crisis situations, and reflect together on how we can serve others in the name of Jesus, who suffers with us and became our good news “under the sun.”

Teachers: Russ Corley, Mark Manassee

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Raising Resilient Children and Teens

The Director of Pepperdine's Counseling Center will share how college students today (including Christian college students) are more anxious and less able to cope with life's challenges. Parents, families, and church communities will be encouraged to consider their role in helping raise children and teens to become resilience, faithful adults.

Teacher: Connie Horton Host: Sharon Hargrave

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Beyond All Shame, Part 3

Teacher: Chris Seidman

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM The Story of Esther, Part 3

Teacher: Rubel Shelly

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM No More Doctrine, Part 3

Structuring life so doctrine flows from the right place into the right people.

Teacher: Chris Goldman

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Let the Walls Fall Down, Part 3

Teachers: Dudley Rutherford, Jeff Walling

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM The Gospel According to Ruth

Teacher: Jarrod Robinson

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Please Understand Me!, Part 2

Session two of a two-part class. Having introduced the “spirituality wheel” spiritual typology in session one, this session will probe more deeply into a study of spiritual types and their implications for one’s own spiritual journey and for leadership toward a well-rounded congregational spirituality. (Class title borrowed from David Keirse’s work on Myers-Briggs personality types.)

Teacher: Naomi Walters

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Diverse City, Part 3

The Church is called to be leading the way when it comes to racial reconciliation. So why do we have such a mixed record here? How can we do better? What's stopping us?

Teacher: Jonathan Stormont

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Marital Intelligence 2.0

Come and learn about the 5 problems in marriage: ignoring needs, immature behaviors, clashing temperaments, competing relationships, and past baggage. Each of these will be discussed briefly, along with antidotes, solutions, and self-test to make the material helpful and accessible.

Teachers: Stanley & Debra Winters

Friday 9:30-10:15 AM Scum of the Earth, Part 2

In 1 Corinthians 1-4, Paul lays out his philosophy of Christian ministry and leadership. A close reading of these chapters reveals why most contemporary churches would never hire Paul to be their preacher. In session two, we'll focus on Paul's paradoxical view of what qualifies him, or anyone else, to be a leader.

Teacher: Wade Hodges

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

- Friday 9:30-10:15 AM A Teacher, a Preacher, and a Funeral Director Walk Into a...
Cecil, Greg, and Steve have been friends for over 30 years and have served as ministers to kids, adults, and those grieving in death. We are still on the journey, but hope the life lessons will help you and make you laugh.
Teachers: Greg England, Steve Puckett, Cecil Walker
- Friday 10:30-11:30 AM Morning Keynote: Esther
Speaker: Amy Bost Henegar Worship Leader: Chad Higgins

Hosts: Chris Gingles, Milton Jones
- Friday 11:30 AM-1 PM Rochester College Luncheon
Hosts: Brian Stogner & Tom Rellinger
- Friday 11:30 AM-1:30 PM Lunch at Amphitheatre Grill
Items can be purchased individually or with meal ticket. Meal ticket includes any sandwich or salad option, one side (chips or fruit cup), one drink, and one dessert. Does not include plated entrees.
- Friday 11:30 AM-1:30 PM Lunch at Waves Cafe
Accepting meal tickets purchased online or at the door.
- Friday 11:30 AM-1 PM Women In Ministry Luncheon
Host: D'Esta Love
- Friday 1-4:30 PM Making Waves Children's Program
For ages 6 months - 11 years old. Registration required online with medical release info. Please be mindful of picking up your child on time.
Director: Laureen Henegar
- Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Shedding Light Amid Darkness, Part 3
In spite of the intense persecution of Christians around the world, reports are arriving daily of the unexpectedly fast rate of conversions to Christ even in the most hard-hit areas of persecution.
Teacher: Gayle Crowe
- Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Chicken and Waffles
When God is unleashed to work and lead, He often intrudes on our typical models of ministry and mission. And that can be a very good thing, because the result is often the "unity of the Spirit" (Ephesians 4:3).
Teacher: Dirk Smith
- Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Life after Legalism
This session will explore the connection between grace and freedom in real life. Following Paul's exhortation in Galatians 5:1-6, a husband and wife discuss their life after legalism.
Teachers: Matt & Melissa Raines
- Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Sex: A Woman's Perspective in the Song of Songs
The Song of Songs teaches us the most when we simply let the poem do what it does, and the poem celebrates sexuality in a spiritual context. It teaches us about God and Israel, about Christ and the church. And, it teaches us about two people who help us imagine a full definition of intimacy—sexual, emotional, spiritual intimacy.

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Teacher: Sara Barton

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM "In Times Like These..."

This course will be an exploration of what the Christian response should be with the dramatic shift in the social and political climates of our country. Do we say nothing? Do we just pray? Let's explore this together.

Teacher: Stacy Jones

Friday 1:30-4:15 PM Families and Forgiveness

Forgiveness is often thought of as a "letting go" of pain, anger, and bitterness. In this workshop, participants learn that forgiveness is not so much about "letting go" as it is about "putting back" and restoring as much love and trustworthiness to the relationships as possible. Using the Restoration Therapy Model and Christ's model of forgiveness, participants will understand the need for love and trustworthiness in identity and safety. This work shop teaches interventions that help individuals and families heal through attention to love, justice, and power.

Teachers: Terry & Sharon Hargrave

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Facing Life's Futility (Preaching Ecclesiastes)

This class explores Ecclesiastes' response to the brevity, unpredictability, and futility of life. The seven "enjoyment passages" provide an interpretive key to the book's message.

Teacher: David Bland

Friday 1:30-4:30 PM Pepperdine View Teen Program

This interactive and fun program provides opportunities for these students to go deeper, build lifelong friendships, and leave ready to be leaders back home. From fun team-building activities to practical workshops, students will be challenged to apply the Bible Lectures to their youth groups, churches, and personal lives. Registration required online with medical release info. Water and sunscreen are recommended for the hike today.

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Eucharist: The Giving of Thanks

How did a "supper" turn into a tiny wafer and a sip of juice? Join Dyron Daughrity as he leads us on a tour of the Christian practice of the Lord's Supper: from the Jewish Passover to the present day. And don't be too alarmed when you hear about Christians using Oreos and milk instead of matza and red wine!

Teacher: Dyron Daughrity

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM "There is a time for everything," But How Do I Find the Time?!

This class will look at the tendency to compress more and more into everyday life, and consider the implications of living without margins. The class will also explore how this overload looks through the seasons of life.

Teacher: Jimmy Cone

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM In a Time of Protest, What Is a Christian to Do?

What does the Bible teach about a Christian's relationship to government? Can a Christian engage in civil disobedience? Should a Christian seek public office? Join former California State Assembly Member and State Senator Jack Scott for this insightful discussion.

Teacher: Jack Scott

Friday 1:30-4:15 PM Excursion: Malibu Lagoon Nature Hike

Registration required online through your Bible Lectures registration.

Host: Steve Davis

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Finding God in Strange People and Scary Places, Part 3

God is opening up the Muslim world around the Mediterranean Rim in ways that shouldn't be surprising to Christians who know their Bibles and understand how God has often used tragedies and ruin to be the seedbed for hope and transformation.

Teachers: Dan Bouchelle, Phil Jackson, Chris Shelby

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Para Mujeres: Los ritmos espirituales de las relaciones: Rut

Spiritual Rhythms in Relationship: Ruth

Teacher: Michelle Goff

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Para Adolescentes: ¡Sube la música!

That's my jam!

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Cantares: El amor de Cristo y su iglesia

Song of Songs: The Love of Christ and His Church

Teacher: Rogelio Alcalá

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM Getting Unstuck, Part 2

There's no such thing as an "anxiety-free" church. There are, however, anxiety-resilient individuals within a church. If you can learn what to do with your own anxiety, you may be able to become part of the solution.

Teacher: John Alan Turner

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM That They May All Be One

Join us for stories of the ways one church is discovering answers to this question and consider practical steps that any church can take toward unity with other churches.

Teacher: Doug Page

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM The Messiah We Would Have Elected

One hundred years after Jesus, Simon Bar Kokhba became the Jewish Messiah, an ambitious ruler who wasn't afraid to get his hands dirty to get God's work done. Many Christians claim to follow Jesus but act like Bar Kokhba is the real Messiah. When we put the Way of Jesus next to the way of Bar Kokhba, which Messiah would we elect to solve the problems of our world?

Teacher: Jordan Hubbard

Friday 1:30-2:15 PM 20 Things White Christians Don't Understand About Black Christians...and Vice-Versa

We often take for granted that we know what, why, or how the "black church" or "white church" thinks or acts concerning worship, theology, race, politics, etc. The fact is we are all pretty ignorant about one another and there's some stuff this black preacher thinks white folks need to know...and vice versa. We'll teach a little and discuss a lot.

Teacher: Fate Hagood

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM The 5 Behaviors of a Cohesive Ministry Team

Effective ministry is not only about relying on God's power, it also involves working well with a variety of people who exhibit an array of personality styles. Come learn how to be a more effective ministry team, whether you serve with a team of elders, church staff, or committee of volunteers.

Teacher: Emily Spivey

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM How Lonely Stands the Preacher, Part 3

The book of Lamentations bears witness through poetry and prayer to the community of God. Exploring how Lamentations gives testimony to the unspeakable provides the preacher who stands before congregations with a more robust repertoire to answer the question, "How does Lamentations still preach a living word for the 21st century church?"

Teacher: Tim Sensing

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Fertile Soil for Weary Hearts, Part 2

The gospel of John gives us a captivating image of Jesus that is important for us all to dive deeply into.

Teacher: Bryan Schackmann

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Love First, Part 3

The irresistible love of God is not unconditional. I know this may sound like anathema to you, but this truth is the most urgent aspect of restoration needed in our churches today. Join us to experience the unlimited power of the conditional love of God.

Teacher: Don McLaughlin

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Finding God in Pop Culture, Part 3

When Jesus said, "The stones will cry out," we may not have imagined that films like Hacksaw Ridge, Silence, and The Shack, TV shows like Blackish and Duck Dynasty, and musicians like Chance the Rapper and Katy Perry would celebrate God. Yet, here we are, finding signs of life across pop culture. This series will explore the power of general revelation--God's ability to communicate through whomever, wherever, and whenever--with a series of special guests who have produced some of the most inspiring stories.

Teacher: Craig Detweiler

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM God's Word and My Story, Part 2

In conversations with skeptical acquaintances or questioning grandchildren, followers of Jesus need to be able to explain their trust in the Bible as well as share their own experience of faith. This two part class will equip you to do both with grace and Christ-centered confidence.

Teacher: Taylor Walling

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Round Midnight

What does it mean to live in the mystery of God in creation? What is the significance of midnight when you serve a God who is Lord of Creation, including the world of materiality which has never been a perfect world, but a world of flesh and blood--a world which contains angularity, dissonance, deformation, and imperfection? This certainly sounds like the created world, so come and find out how to make meaning of your midnight.

Teacher: Raymond Carr

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Para Mujeres: Los ritmos espirituales de la sabiduría: Eclesiastés

Spiritual Rhythms of Wisdom: Ecclesiastes

Teacher: Michelle Goff

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Two Steps Forward, Three Steps Back

Working with the broken and disenfranchised is challenging because there are always setbacks and discouragement. Helping anyone transition into a new paradigm has its hurdles, and after 30 years of personal freedom from prison, addictions and deep bondage, understanding some universal patterns towards freedom suggests we can have a reprieve in our journey with others.

Teachers: Joe and Becky Almanza

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Preaching Esther: Collaborative Approach to Sermon Preparation

Earlier this year, the Meadowbrook Church of Christ in Jackson, MS embarked on a little homiletical adventure. In an effort to invite more people to be part of the spiritually formative dimensions of sermon preparation, a team of members, ministers, and congregational leaders formed to prepare a sermon series through the book of Esther. This session will describe the experience and provide some reflections upon it.

Teacher: Ben Fike

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Sounds of Lament (Lamentations and the Blues)

An interactive musical session that explores the connection between the book of Lamentations and the American blues movement.

Participants will hear live performances of blues styles while identifying common features between the blues and the Hebrew lament.

Teacher: Jacob Parnell

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Guarding Your Heart

We will look at four steps found in scripture that enable us to guard our hearts and get the most out of life. These steps provide healing for our hearts, our hurts, our past, and our relationships. When we live these steps we find meaning, purpose and the fulfillment of our hearts.

Teacher: David Berry

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Leaven Symposium, Part 3

Hosted by Leaven Journal

Hosts: John Barton, Mark Love

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Parents On Their Knees

The power of prayer in the family and in the church

Teacher: Tony Fernandez

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Love Rules 2

We will continue our discussion of what it means to love others (even enemies) in the same way that God loves the world.

Teacher: Aaron Metcalf

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Friday 2:30-3:15 PM Living Words (The Bible Everyone's Reading)

Reading the Bible is good but how we read the Bible (hermeneutics) matters too, and it has everything to do with our witness.

Teacher: Rex Butts

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Leading a Dying Church: Is there Hope?

Many of our churches are asking similar questions about the future of their congregation and our "tribe." We will explore practical suggestions of how to move forward in hope when a church seems to be dying.

Teacher: Jay Baker

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Devotion: The Dialectic of Private and Public Faith - DO NOT RECORD

Our desire for communion with God is rarely investigated through the seemingly mundane reality of our daily lives. How do our relationships with and to each other privilege an opportunity for deeper critical self-reflection, meditation, communion with God. How do our daily encounters call us to a particular kind of self? How can our devotional life create space and opportunity for us to "hear" God with more profundity and resonance?

Teacher: Joi Carr

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Reaching Our Neighbors Around the World and Around the Corner

Teacher: Scott Lambert

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Para Mujeres: Los ritmos espirituales en lo difícil: Ester

Spiritual Rhythms in Difficult Times: Esther

Teacher: Michelle Goff

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Eclesiastés: Vanidad sin fin si olvidamos el fin

Ecclesiastes: Endless Vanity if We Forget the End

Teacher: Kevin Montgomery

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Restoring Your Ministerial Spirit

In ministry we spend so much time building the faith of others. In the process it is inevitable that we will experience our own personal times of dryness and even burnout. These are those moments when our faith is at wits end and we feel hypocritical communicating with energy and enthusiasm about a message we are personally struggling to connect with. What do you do in those times? This class will focus on finding the help you need to nourish your soul and reconnect with God on a personal level.

Teacher: Matt Dabbs

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Preaching Esther

Important theological themes for sermons from the book of Esther

Teacher: Mallory Wyckoff

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM How Long Should a Preacher Stay Put?, Part 2

Only in recent decades have most ministers in Churches of Christ served a congregation for more than five years. This two-day class will explore the pros and cons of having a minister for ten years or more, and what a productive long-tenure requires of a minister, a leadership and a congregation.

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Leaving a Legacy

What is the most valuable thing you can leave future generations? For centuries, 70% of family wealth has dissipated by the second generation, 90% by the third. More importantly, many have lost family unity and faith. We will discuss ways to leave your true legacy as well as explore resources to foster leadership, communication and values.

Teachers: Dan Garrett, Tim Woodroof

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM The Stories We Tell Ourselves, Part 3

This last session will provide a practical approach in living a free life for God. That is, learning to trade bad stories for the true and good stories of Jesus.

Teachers: Joshua Graves, Suzanne Stabile

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM Para Adolescentes: El Facebook de Jesucristo

PEPPERDINE BIBLE LECTURES May 2-5, 2017

Teacher: Jerry Rushford

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM 3 Keys to Missional Transformation, Part 3

The prospect of transformation often creates a sense of instability that incites fear. In this session, we will discuss how effective leaders recognize a goal that is greater than comfort and lead people beyond their fear.

Teacher: Tod Vogt

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM The Son of Man Came Eating & Drinking

In three places, the gospels tell us why Jesus came to earth. We know two quite well but the third might be surprising. Focusing on the role of food in the gospel of Luke, we will discuss how Jesus used meals to connect with people in deep and meaningful ways.

Teacher: Dan Jocoy

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM No Rules; Just Right, Part 2

Christians face a very real challenge. If we strive to live our lives fully in the sacred kingdom, we find less and less rules to guide us in the profane world. If Christian spirituality isn't about mastering rules, what is it that we must master? The answer is life. This session will discuss how to reclaim your life from the profane world and reintegrate it into the kingdom life that God desires for all Christians.

Teacher: David Srygley

Friday 3:30-4:15 PM The Church in the Secular Age, Part 3

What does it mean to be a Christian in a world where "A Mighty Fortress is Our God," has been replaced by "Blowin' in the Wind?"

Teacher: Randy Harris

Friday 4:30-6:15 PM Dinner at Amphitheatre Grill
