

Pepperdine University
Disability Services Office (DSO)
Approved Service Animal Agreement

The owner of an assistance animal must:

- comply with any and all county, state, or federal licensing requirements, as appropriate for the animal, with copy of licenses submitted to DSO.
- follow their veterinarian's care recommendations and vaccinations for the animal, with copy of health record submitted to DSO.
- be financially responsible for any bodily injury or property damage caused by the animal, in addition to the cost of extra cleaning due to the animal.
- control the animal by keeping the animal leashed when outside or within the owner's designated suite at all other times.
- cleanup and appropriately dispose of the animal's waste.
- have written agreement from any roommates or suitemates that consent to the presence of the animal in the suite, with a copy of the agreement submitted to DSO.

Failure to adhere to this agreement is considered a violation of our residential student policy and could result in a judicial hearing.
